MEMPHIS APPEAL.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

Patriotic Sentiments.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A number of citizens of New York, on the 24th of June, addressed a letter to President Johnson asking permission that his name be presented to the Democratic Convention as a candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Johnson replied as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 6, 1868.

Gentlemen: To your friendly inquiry whether, if deemed destrable for the preservation and unity of the Conservative interests of the country, I would permit my name to be offered as a candidate for the office of President of the United States, I would respectfully reply that I am not ambitious for further service—I may say, indeed, of further endurance—in that elevated and responsible position, unless by a call so general and unequivocal that it would be an indorsement by the people of my endeavors to defend the Constitution and the reserved rights of the several commonwealths which were once in fact the Federal Union. Of such approval in the present temper of parties, I can, perhaps, have no reasonable expectation. All history proves that men who, in official position, oppose for any reason, cherished schemes devised by factions to acquire power, usually find more determined assailants than open and earnest defenders. Hence, in resisting measures which, although sustained by Congress, I honestly believed to be encroachments upon the Constitution, my task has been made arduous and seemingly ungracious by an opposition powerfully well organized and possessing a controlling influence in the halls of legislation unprecedented in the history of the country. Compelled to devote my entire time to the issues that have been forced upon me, and to contend against a majority represented by two-thirds of each house of Congress, I have been unable, while striving to protect and maintain the liberties of the people, to check the extravagant expenditures for objects not contemplated by the Constitution, and to lighten the burdens of taxation which now rests so oppressively upon the nation. In the midst of these embarrassments I have not been discouraged. While from the public prints or from some unusually frank and outspoken friend I have heard that I have no party, the suggestion has only served to remind me of a memorable remark uttered when faction ruled high in Rome, that Cæsar had a party and Pompey and Cræsus each had a party, but that the commonwealth had one aiming only: as the representative of the people, to stand by the rights of the people. May I not pertinently make the application to my own case? Conscious of having honestly discharged my duties, and satisfied that the contest in which I have been compelled to engage, will in the end at least inure to the benefit—and, indeed, safety—of constitutional liberty and human rights, I can well afford, I think, to look calmly on the present and await patiently the verdict of the future. Whilst I know that the struggle for the rights of the people, and for the defense of the Constitution, is not yet over, yet believing that the late palpable failure to do violence to that great instrument and the Executive office the worst that faction can do for the present has been accomplished, I would only, in concluding this brief statement of my views and feelings, express the hope that in the selection by the Convention of a candidate for the Presidency, whose duty it will be, if elected, to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, and to execute the laws made in pursuance of its provisions, the public good and leading well-established principles must not be sacrificed to the meagre purpose of party ascendency.

In conclusion, gentlemen, permit me to thank you most earnestly for the kind expression of your confidence in me as a public servant, and to assure you that the approval of the people is all that is requisite to make me feel that the efforts I have made to restore the Union on the basis of justice and conciliation have not been altogether in vain, and leaving my course and myself in their hands. Should the continuance and conclusion of the contest to vindicate and preserve a Constitutional Government be confided by them to abler and more worthy hands, I shall cordially acquiesce, as has been my habit, in the decision of the American people.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Very respectfully your obed't serv't,
[Signed] ANDREW JOHNSON.

Try Me on Leather.

A gentleman once in a stage coach tried to get into conversation with his only fellow-passenger, but could get nothing from him beyond a disclaimer of any knowledge on any of the subjects introduced. At last he said, "Sir, I like to talk to pass away the time in traveling. Is there anything you do know anything about?" The silent man replied, "Try me on leather."

We commend this anecdote to the eminent Republican statesmen and the impatient public who have been trying and waiting to get some opinion on something out of Hiram Ulysses. He is theirs now for better or for worse, and they must make the best out of him as he is. He is not supposed to have many opinions on many subjects—in fact he is not positively known to have any in particular, except that Grant is Grant and ought to be President. He may possibly know something about leather. His father, Jesse, says he did not like to make it, and it is certainly a very respectable thing to know something about. He ought to be tried.—Danville Advocate.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

THIRD DAYS' PROCEEDINGS.

TAMMANY HALL, NEW YORK, July 7, 10:40 a.m.—Police arrangements this morning on Fourteenth street are excellent. All crowding at the doors of the hall is prevented by lines of police, who permit no one but holders of tickets to the Convention to approach the building. At ten o'clock the delegates were generally on hand and the galleries filled with spectators, as also were all the seats appropriated to the ladies.

Prior to calling the Convention to order, the hall was filled with rumors. Some of Pendleton's friends say that combinations have been made which render his defeat certain.

The Committee on Resolutions has agreed unanimously on a platform and are ready to report promptly.

The Convention was called to order by the President at 10:30.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Plummer, who referred with approiate feeling to the sudden death of Peter Cagger, a delegate to the Convention from the State of New York.

On motion of Bigler, of Pennsylvania, the reading of yesterday's journal was dispensed with.

Wright, of Delaware, submitted resolutions from Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, which he asked to have read and referred. The name of Stephens was greeted with cheers. The resolutions were read by the Secretary; they declare adherence to the Union, that the Union under the Constitution is the union of the States, and reaffirmed the doctrines of Jefferson and the necessity of bringing the Government back to their observance. The Democratic party in sustaining the Federal Government during the late war, did it in good faith to sustain the Constitution and to preserve the rights and dignities of all the States unimpaired. The highest meed of patriotism is due to all who periled life and fortune for the maintenance of the Union, but we have no thanks for those who carried on the war for the subjugation of States or to subject the white to the black race.

Richardson, of Illinois, moved that all resolutions heretofore submitted be referred without reading. He said if the Convention took any other course it would make some mistake, and commit itself to something it could not maintain on the stump.

A delegate moved to amend so as to confine the motion to all resolutions relating to the platform.

Mr. Murphy said the Committee on Resolutions were now ready to report, and he hoped Richardson would withdraw his motion.

A delegate from California sent up the resolutions of the Labor Committee of that State against negro domination, and in favor of the eight hour rule, as sound Democratic doctrine.

Richardson insisted on his motion to refer all resolutions.

Bigler moved to lay it on the table, which was rejected.

The question was then taken on Richardson's motion, referring all resolutions without reading.

Price, of Missouri, here took the Chair, but before a vote was taken on Richardson's motion, Murphy rose to report from the Committee on Resolutions, the Platform, which he sent to the Chair where it was read by Murphy.

It declares that the Democratic party reposing trust in the intelligence and justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution, and recognizing slavery and secession as settled by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States, and never to be renewed, do demand the immediate restoration of all the States [cheers] with amnesty for all political offenses and the right of suffrage in all the States, the payment of the public debt, when the obligations do not expressly state on their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide for their payment in coin, should be paid in lawful money of the United States. [Prolonged cheers.]

Fourth, The taxation of all property, including Government Bonds. [Cheers.]

Fifth, One currency for the Government and people, laborers and officeholders, pensioners and soldiers, producers and bondholders. [Great cheers.]

Sixth, Economy in the administration of the Government, a reduction of the army and navy and the abolition of the Freedman's Bureau [cheers] and the inquisitorial modes of collecting the revenue tariff, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to industry.

Seventh, The subordination of the military to the civil power.

Eighth, Equal rights and protection for native and adopted citizens against the doctrine of immutable allegiance.

It also denounces the usurpation and tyranny of the Radical party, its violation of the pledges that the war was only for the preservation of the Union and not for the subjugation of the Southern States, and that it had overthrown the freedom of speech and of the press, re-established a system of espionage, made the National Capital a Bastile, and threatens to destroy the original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and maligned the Chief Justice because of his integrity in the trial of the President.

The report continued at considerable length to reiterate these abuses, and in conclusion declares that the privilege and trust of suffrage belongs exclusively to the control of each State, and that Congress has usurped it in violation of the Constitution. It specifically denounces the reconstruction acts as an usurpation, unconstitutional and void; that the soldiers' and sailors' pensions are to be faithfully paid, and that the public lands should be reserved for homesteads. It then thanks Andrew Johnson for resisting the aggressions of Congress. This was received with great cheers. In conclusion the report invites the men of all parties in the past to unite on this platform.

Mr. Murphy then moved the previous question, which was then ordered, with few dissenting votes.

Several delegates called for a re-reading, which was followed by great cries of "question," "question," which was adopted with few dissenting voices.

The committee then rose, and while wildly cheering, Bigler, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution that the Convention do now proceed to nominate a candidate for President of the United States. Cheers and some confusion ensued here, but the chair put the question at once, and it was decided in the affirmative.

Seymour here resumed the Chair, and Vallandigham moved to reconsider the vote just taken, and a delegate moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table; which carried.

The Chairman said that it was important that the Convention, before proceeding to ballot, should clearly understand what the two-third rule is; he was anxious that no misapprehension should arise after a ballot shall have been taken. He then called upon the Secretary to read the decision of the previous Democratic Convention in regard to the two-third rule, and if there should be any doubt upon the true operation and effect of said rule, he invited a series of resolutions by the Convention, which should determine whether two-thirds of the entire Convention, or if the vote should not be full two-thirds of all those voting should determine the ballot.

Richardson moved that two-thirds of all the delegates voting on any ballot shall be a nomination. He added a few remarks, in which he denounced the two-third rule a mischievous one.

Kiernan, of New York, hoped and believed that no serious question would arise here for the sake of the country. We want, said he, not only to nominate, but to win, and he hoped no man would be nominated here who was not voted for by two-thirds of all the delegates, and he hoped that there would be no change of the rule as had heretofore been observed, and that Richardson's resolution would not be adopted. [Cheers.] He wanted a nomination made only by the concurrent judgment of two-thirds of all the delegates of all the States. [Cheers.]

Richardson rose to reply, but gave way to Clymer, of Pennsylvania, who said that the chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization said that the committee had unanimously agreed to report the two-third rule, and that it required two-thirds of all the delegation to effect a nomination.

Hoyt, of Maryland, attempted to offer an amendment as an amendment to Richardson's resolution, but Richardson withdrew his resolution and the amendment was also withdrawn.

The Chair then announced that he would rule as was ruled at the Baltimore and Charleston Conventions, that two-thirds of the entire number of delegates shall be necessary to a nomination.

The discussion as rendered at Baltimore was then read by the Secretary.

The Chair then urged the audience to be quiet, and to repress manifestations designed to influence the result of the deliberations of the Convention.

After some unimportant discussions of order, Bigler moved that the Secretaries of the Convention act as tellers, which was agreed to.

A delegate from Nevada inquired whether after the nominations closed today any new nominations can be brought forward.

The Chair replied that the Convention could, at any time, bring forward new candidates, but subsequently he said it was in order under the resolutions already adopted for any State now to bring forward its candidate. And the Secretary proceeded to call the roll in order to give an opportunity for the States to present their candidates.

Eaton, of Connecticut, referred to the gloom which hung over the Democratic party at the close of the war, and reminded the Convention that Connecticut was on the first State to pierce the gloom by the election of a Democratic Governor, James E. English, who Connecticut now presents as her candidate.

Richardson said Illinois would vote for Pendleton, but would leave Ohio to make the nomination.

Anderson, of Maine, eloquently eulogized and presented the name of W. S. Hancock. [Cheers.]

Emory, of Maine, in behalf of the delegation, and in behalf of the laboring masses, named Geo. H. Pendleton. [Great Cheers.]

New Jersey nominated Ex Gov. Joel Packer, for whom she claimed a national reputation, stating that while he earnestly supported the National Government throughout the war, he never consented to any separation of the rights of citizens.

Tilden, of New York, by a unanimous vote of the delegation, nominated Sanford E. Church, who he eulogised as a statesman of large experience, and a man who has always achieved success before the people.

Gen. McCook, of Ohio, said that by the unanimous voice of her Convention, he placed in nomination George H. Pendleton. [Cheers.]

Woodward, of Pennsylvania, by a unanimous vote of the delegation, nominated the Hon. Asa Parker. He declared that this nomination was not intended as a mere compliment, but the delegation presented him in good faith, but in great deference to the views of the Convention, and they intended to stand by him as long as it should seem necessary to give the Convention time enough to rally to his support. The speaker proceeded at some length to present his candidate's public and private worth, but he had not concluded when the five minutes allotted to each speaker expired and time was called, but by unanimous consent Woodward was permitted to go on. Parker's name was greeted with applause, with a few hisses.

Nelson, of Tennessee, rose to present the name of one who claims the qualifications, which he set forth in a few earnest and forcible remarks, concluding by nominating Andrew Johnson. [Great cheering, both among the delegates and spectators, which was renewed and long continued.]

Smith, of Vermont, nominated the only Democratic Governor of New England, J. E. English. A delegate from Virginia indorsed him as the first and only choice as nominee of the Convention. [Cheers.]

Palmer, of Wisconsin, for the minority of the delegation, seconded the nomination of a man who had never been out of the Democratic party—George H. Pendleton.

The roll was then called on the first ballot, with the following result:

FIRST BALLOT.

Pendleton, 105; Hancock, 33½; Andrew Johnson, 65; English, 16; Hendricks, 24; Reverdy Johnson, 8½; Doolittle, 13; Parker, 26; Blair, 8½; Church, 33; whole vote cast, 317; necessary to a choice, 212; no choice.

Before proceeding to the second ballot, Price, of Missouri, assumed the chair—five minutes having been allowed for consulting, at the expiration of which the roll was called.

SECOND BALLOT.

English, 12½; Hancock, 45; Pendleton, 99½; Parker, 15½; Church, 33; Packer, 26; Andrew Johnson, 52; Doolittle, 12½; Hendricks, 2; Reverdy Johnson, 8; Blair, 18½; Thomas Ewing, jr., 0½.

No choice on this ballot.

Scott, of Pennsylvania, moved to adjourn till 4 p.m., but withdrew it on an appeal of the friends of Mr. Cook, of Ohio, who asked a revision of the last ballot, stating that there was an error somewhere.

It was found on investigation that the vote of Maryland had been erroneously rendered, and the total vote for Pendleton was 104, and of Hancock 40½.

A motion for a recess at 4 p.m. was made and lost, and the call of the roll on the third ballot was begun, when Pilm asked and obtained leave to retire for consultation. In the meanwhile the voting was suspended.

Virginia, on the third ballot, went to Pendleton with ten votes, and the result was announced thus:

THIRD BALLOT.

English, 7½; Hancock, 45½; Pendleton, 119½; Parker, 13; Church, 33; Packer, 26; Andrew Johnson, 34½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 9½; Reverdy Johnson, 11; Blair, 4½; Ewing, 1.

Pennsylvania having announced her vote for Packer, as before, there was no choice, and the roll was called for the fourth ballot, in which North Carolina voted 9 for Seymour, amid great and continuous applause.

Tilden said that if the galleries were to interfere, they be cleared.

Richardson moved to clear them, but withdrew it, and Seymour rose and said that he could not accept a nomination by this Convention, which his inclination originally declined, and his honor now demanded, and he hoped his name would not be called here against his protest.

The call was completed and at its close North Carolina was again called, but persisted in her vote for Seymour, and the result was announced as follows:

FOURTH BALLOT.

English, 7½; Hancock, 43½; Pendleton, 118½; Parker, 13; Church, 33; Packer, 29; Andrew Johnson, 32; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 11½; Reverdy Johnson, 8; Seymour, 9; Blair, 2; English, 2. No choice.

Fitch, of Indiana, asked permission for the delegation of that State to retire, which was agreed to.

Motions for a recess to 7 o'clock, and also to 4 o'clock p.m. were lost.

Kansas moved to adjourn, which was lost, and the roll was then called for the FIFTH BALLOT.

In this ballot Florida changed from Hancock to Doolittle; Michigan changed from Reverdy Johnson to Hendricks; North Carolina gave one vote for J. Q. Adams; Georgia gave nine for Blair; Arkansas added three to Pendleton. The Indiana delegation not having returned yet, the vote stood: English, 7; Hancock 46; Pendleton, 109; Parker, 13; Church, 33; Packer 27; Andrew Johnson, 24; Doolittle, 15; Hendricks, 19½; Reverdy Johnson, 9½; J. Q. Adams, 1.

While waiting for the Indiana delegation, the Secretary called upon the several delegations to send up for recording the names and postoffice address respectively of their nominees for the National Executive Committee.

Richardson said that before the expiration of the next four years, all the present Territories would probably be States of the Union, and he moved, therefore, that a member from each Territory be added to the National Executive Committee.

Hart, of New York, moved to lay the motion on the table, which was lost.

A delegate from Pennsylvania moved to amend, so as to give one member of the Executive Committee to the District of Columbia.

An Ohio delegate said that the District of Columbia could never be a State in the Union, so he hoped the amendment would not be adopted.

The vote was taken and the amendment lost, and the question then recurred upon the original motion of Richardson.

Tilden, of New York, opposed the proposition to give the Territories equal influence with populous States like New York and Pennsylvania. It was enough that under the present rule the voice of New York was neutralized by the voice of the smaller States.

Reilly, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing that in the event of any new State being admitted into the Union, any person appointed by the recognized Democratic party of such State, shall be accepted as a member of the National Democratic Executive Committee.

A committee of three was appointed to see if the Indiana delegation was likely to be ready to return to the Convention, with a view of taking a recess if the delegation still needed further time.

On the suggestion of Nelson, of Tennessee, Gen. Brown, of that State, was invited to present the memorial of the Democratic State Convention of Tennessee, setting forth the sufferings of her people under Radical rule.

Mr. Brown then took the stand to state in brief the points of the memorial, which the committee has prepared, and which he had been deputed to present.

While Brown was still speaking, a delegate from Indiana interrupted him, as a question of privilege, to state that the delegates of that State were still in consultation, but that he was authorized to cast the vote of Indiana on the fifth ballot, as before, for Pendleton. This increased Pendleton's vote to 122.

McMullin then moved a recess until 5 o'clock, which was lost, and the roll was ordered for the sixth ballot.

Tilden asked leave for the New York delegation to retire for consultation as to its member of the National Executive Committee.

Another motion to adjourn was then made and lost.

SIXTH BALLOT.

English, 6; Hancock, 47; Pendleton, 122½; Parker, 13; Church, 33; Packer, 27; Andrew Johnson, 21; Doolittle, 13; Hendricks, 30; Blair, 5.

Missouri cast a half less than her full vote.

A delegate from North Carolina, said that it was evident that the Convention was accomplishing nothing, and he therefore moved to adjourn. Lost.

Clymer, of Pennsylvania, moved for a recess until 7 o'clock p.m.

Pennsylvania asked and was refused leave to retire for consultation.

A motion for a recess till 6 p.m. was made, and the vote ordered by States, but before the roll was concluded a communication was received from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, announcing the adoption of a resolution approving of and indorsing the platform of the Democratic Convention—which was ordered to be spread upon the minutes.

The motion for a recess till 6 p.m. was then, on the call of the States, rejected by yeas 99, nays 218.

Maryland then moved to adjourn, and the vote by States was then taken and the motion carried—yeas 220, nays 97; and the Convention adjourned until 10 a.m. to-morrow.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
OF TENNESSEE.

Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them coequal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE.

The Cincinnati Enquirer declares that, upon the subjoined propositions, "the Democracy are a complete unit." We hope it may prove so; and that they will be distinctly and unequivocally embodied in the Declaration of Principles adopted at New York. If they should not be, the white men of the South will have little concern in the result:

"1. This was intended to be, and must always remain, a white man's Government. None but white men must vote or hold office.

"2. Negro suffrage has been imposed upon the States of the South by gross and scandalous usurpation on the part of the Federal Government, and it cannot exist without a continuance of that Federal usurpation. The Democracy will not allow that continuance, but will leave the matter to be settled by the white voters of every State, and by no other people. It must be settled in the Southern States, as it is settled in the Northern, by the votes of the whites alone.

"3. Every means of coercion upon the white people, to force them to have negro suffrage, will be forthwith stopped and declared illegal, as soon as the Democrats are in power."

HOW THE CONSTITUTION OF ARKANSAS WAS ADOPTED---AN AUTHENTIC STATEMENT.

Charges of frauds perpetrated at elections have been so common that people at a distance listen to all of them with incredulity. We have said that the Constitution was defeated in Arkansas by a large majority of votes, and that this majority was overcome by the most outrageous frauds. We have been quite aware that this general statement could make but little impression on the public mind. We copy below an authentic statement of these frauds and the mode in which they were operated: only premising that a gentleman of high character living near Little Rock, informed us yesterday that a negro boy whom he hires, about seventeen years of age, told him that he voted sixteen times, on the day when the vote upon the Constitution was taken:

From the Milwaukie News.]

We received a call yesterday from a gentleman direct from Arkansas, who went to that State in January, 1867, as a Northern Radical Republican, and who was appointed to officiate there under the reconstruction laws as Chairman of the Board of Registry in the county where he lived. His opportunities for information were therefore unsurpassed, and he makes to us this plain statement of facts within his personal knowledge:

The election held here was an utter farce throughout. In making the registry the registers were expected to reject white men at option, and to enroll every negro who presented himself. After the first registry the lists were revised, and as many names stricken off as it was thought necessary to secure a Radical success in the State, or for individual Radical candidates. There were three registers on every board, all of whom subsequently acted as judges at the election, and all of them, who desired to become so, were candidates for office. The election judges traveled about the county taking the votes, and were occupied seven days in the business. No man could vote whose ballot the judges thought proper to reject. Our informant states it to be known to himself, and to be a notorious fact, that where the success of the Radical candidates was doubtful, through other frauds of the charter mentioned, negroes were imported from another jurisdiction in sufficient numbers to supply the deficiency. While the negro vote was thus doubled in many cases, the total number of white votes disfranchised in the State were tens of thousands. In electing themselves or other Radical candidates to office, the registers were amenable to no authority that would recognize the fact of fraud. In brief, the work of carrying the election, regardless of the will of the voters, was deemed by the registers a part of their official duty, and a proof of loyalty to Congress and the military authorities present, and any other course would have objected the registry officers to suspicion and proscription. In the division of the offices, candidates were elected to the Legislature who never saw the counties whence they were chosen, except as members of the registry board, who will never return to the counties they represent, and who do not know a white man among their constituents. As for the negroes, the mass of them took no actual part in the elections but to deposit the votes furnished them by their white Radical leaders.

Our informant is a graduate of Geneva College, a gentleman of recognized probity and intelligence, and was always a Republican until driven from the party by sheer disgust at the mockery he was compelled to witness as one of its agents in the reconstruction scheme. His name will be furnished to any one who is curious on that point. He tells us that he was offered the position of a State Senator, and that he would have divided the spoils with others, who seem to relish the proceedings, and do not hesitate to partake of the fruits of the mockery and fraud; but he preferred to live and die an honest man to the acceptance of honors and emoluments which he can but regard as the price of absolute crime against God and man. He naturally wonders at the stupidity of those Northern Republicans who seem to believe that these proceedings have any other object than the government of the South, and the nation also, by a regularly organized system of fraud and force. If it is the intent of Northern Republicans to assist in degrading republican institutions and obliterating popular rights, their ambition ought to be satisfied; but otherwise they are wofully blind to passing events, and the demoralization of the institutions under which they live.

TENNESSEE.

—Detective Larry Ryan arrived yesterday evening from Crawfordsville, Ind., bringing with him Balaam Robertson and the wife of Mr. John Bugg, of Williamson county, the guilty couple who eloped in February last, taking with them $2000 and a horse of which they had robbed the injured husband.—Nashville Banner, 4th.

—Judge Shackelford yesterday announced that he would adjourn the Chancery Court to-day. This Court has been in session three months.—Nashville Banner, 4th.

—The Memphis and Louisville Railroad are putting in side tracks at Danville, on the Tennessee river, to make freight connections with the Tennessee River Packets' fast freight line on tobacco and cotton to New York.—Nashville Banner, 4th.

—We learn that the rain, hail and wind storm of Tuesday night, was very severe at White Oak Creek, Humphries county. The roads have been rendered impassable. Oats were blown down, wheat shocks and stacks overturned, and corn was very much broken.—Nashville Banner, 4th.

—The Brownlow and Innes Committee appointed to negotiate a lease of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad Company, failed to meet the committee of the latter road yesterday, and it is thought something new is in the wind. It is hinted that Innes is to be displaced by a better fighter, but how far this may be true we have no means of knowing. There is reason to believe that Judge Trigg will render a decision to-day, and it is thought he will decide that the case does not come within his jurisdiction. His opinion, it is said, will be a very elaborate document. Should the case be decided against the new Directory the old employees are all to be paid and business will be renewed on the road. Should the case be decided the other way—we don't know.—Banner, 3d.

—The Paris Intelligencer says: Copious rains fell throughout the county, on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning last, to the great delight of our people and especially of the farmers, whose crops had begun to suffer from the protracted drouth. Since the rain, vegetation of all kinds wears a greatly improved appearance and the prospect of an abundant crop was never more flattering. Corn and cotton are especially looking well. As for tobacco the lack of a season has delayed the planting of any considerable area until within the last few days. That planted early in June promises well.

—Seaborn Jones, over whose lynching by the Kuklux in Tennessee the Radicals set up such a dismal howl, has turned up alive and well at Waynesboro.

—Judging from present indications, it is not unlikely that the contemplated Custom House will be erected on the corner of Church and Cherry streets. As soon as it becomes certainly known that that is the proper site, rents and property in that neighborhood will rise to an enormous hight.—Banner.

MISSISSIPPI.

—A meeting of the stockholders of the Water Valley Agricultural and Manufacturing Company took place at Water Valley on Saturday.

—The Panola Star says: "On last Friday evening, after the close of the polls at this box, as the Radical candidate for the State Senate in this District was about to start for his home, the colored men who had voted the Democratic ticket, and whom he had counted upon to secure his election, gave three groans for the Loyal League, and continued their shouts of derision until his diminutive form was lost to sight. The poor fellow, with his frightened, woe-begone visage, looked around but once, and his livid lips seemed to murmur sadly, 'Et tu Brute?' He did not attend the polls on the next day."

—Recently in Vicksburg there was a large Democratic procession in which were borne several United States flags, which, at the request of several citizens, had been loaned them by the Post Quartermaster. The parade of voters being large and impressive, alarmed the carpet-baggers, several of whom called on Gen. Gillem, and complained that his officer had furnished flags to a procession which was "impeding reconstruction." "Gentlemen," said the General, "you are the d—dest fools I ever saw. I fought these people four years to make them carry the flag, and now you are mad because they wish to march under it."

—We understand, says the Water Valley Eagle, good rains have fallen recently in various sections of the country. We have had none here for six or seven weeks. All kinds of vegetation is suffering severely from drouth, in this section—early corn, particularly—and without rain in a short time, will be entirely blighted.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—The militia force of Great Britain and Ireland in the year 1867, according to the latest official returns, was composed of 4,636 officers, 5,027 non-commissioned officers, and 124,622 privates.

—A fountain in a mineral water establishment in Syracuse, New York, burst last Monday, shattering the building in which it was located, and damaging a dwelling house adjoining. Several narrow escapes were made, but no one seriously injured.

NEW ORLEANS CORRESPONDENCE.

NEW ORLEANS, July 5, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Ere this the telegraph will have informed your numerous readers of the signal back-down of the colored presiding officers, both in the Senate and House, of this most farcical Legislature; and how Lieutenant-Governor Dunn and Mr. Speaker Isabelle, of Senate and House, reconsidered their decision with regard to requiring from Democratic members of those bodies the obnoxious test oath, expressly declared by General Grant as alike unnecessary and unlawful under the provisions of the new so-called Constitution. No higher evidence of the truth of the repeated assertion by the "trooly loil" that the bottom rail shall now be on top, has yet been exhibited than in this little incident, viz: in Lieut.-Gov. Dunn's assumption of the power and will to decide a question in bold opposition to the written order of the General commanding the armies of the United States. The after-thought in which his sable highness "changed his base," is but another characteristic of the mingled arrogance and servility of the race for which the carpet-bag and New England exemplars of a higher civilization have such exalted respect and admiration, and which they have consistently shown in selecting as their presiding officers in Senate and House a black and tan hued specimen of a man and brother. However, let us have done with this altogether nauseating topic.

The glorious Fourth passed off almost unnoticed by the inhabitants of this city. Not a fire-cracker, gun or pistol proclaimed the patriotism of the people, who have so many blessings, and so much liberty to excite such emotions, and one positively could not have told it was a national holiday, had they not noticed the display of bunting over the various foreign Consulates, or witnessed the march of United States troops, artillery, cavalry and infantry, through the principal streets. Even this display of disinterested reverence for the nation's natal day, was somewhat marred in effect by the fast falling rain, which caused the foreign banners to droop in a melancholy state of fading humidity, and we fear seriously damaged the waving plumes and glittering epaulettes of the officers as they traversed the streets in all the pride, pomp and circumstance of glorious peace.

One ray of sunshine was indeed discerned in the graceful action of President Johnson in signalizing the day by a declaration of amnesty and pardon for so many gallant men whose severe afflictions during the many weary months which have succeeded the surrender of the Southern armies, must have amply atoned for much greater crimes than love of country and constitutional freedom as those terms were understood in the palmy days which immediately succeeded the close of the revolution, and were the watchwords of American freemen, until they were schooled by Radical miscreants and pseudo patriots into all the train of oppressions and encroachments on individual rights which have converted these Southern States during these latter days into a hell upon earth, compared to which in many respects the Russian Siberia is a model of security, and a desirable refuge. All honor to President Johnson; and may his declining years be as happy as his administration has been honorable to his understanding and humanity.

Your correspondent now proposes to adjourn from this city until the return of cooler weather, when we hope to resume the labor of love we have ever expressed in relating after a homely manner, it is true, such items as we dared hope might prove acceptable to the patrons of the venerable old APPEAL.

Au revoir. GUMBO.

GEORGIA.

—We regret to learn that J. R. Sneed, Esq., formerly of the Macon Telegraph, is ill in that city of brain fever.

—Two young men, brothers, named William and Daniel Luke, were murdered in Irwin county on the night of the 20th ult., by a negro named Joshua Williams. The murderer has escaped.

—A heavy gale of wind swept over Savannah on Thursday last at night, which did much damage to trees about the city. On South Broad street several large trees were utterly ruined.

—A "gay and festive" colored deacon of one of the Baptist churches in Macon, aged sixty years, eloped with a sister—a buxom, blushing lass of nineteen summers—a few days since, the deacon leaving a wife and a considerable quantity of "picaninnies" to weep over his exit.

—At a meeting of the bar of Savannah on Friday last, with unanimous approbation, a committee composed of the leading lawyers, was appointed to urge Gov. Bullock to retain Judge Flemming as Judge of that circuit.

—On Wednesday night a person called at the house of Warren Harris, near Fort Valley, for a young man living there named Newton Barber. Barber had retired, but got up and went to the gate, where he was shot down and died instantly. There is, as yet, no clue to the murderer.

—The Macon Telegraph speaks of a visit to Middle Georgia of an eminent and official gentleman from Italy with reference to the selection of a favorable country for an Italian settlement and the culture of the silk worm.

—The Rome Courier of the 4th inst. says: "On the morning of the 3d inst. 104 convicts from the Georgia Penitentiary arrived here—about one-fourth of them are white. They are to be worked on the railroad, and will commence near Mrs. Harrison's, about six miles from here. We are informed that one of them, a negro, escaped somewhere on the State road, Thursday night."

—The Macon Journal and Messenger of Friday says: "We learn that W. P. Edwards, of Taylor county, a Radical member of the Atlanta Convention, and claiming to be a Representative elect from the Third Congressional District of this State, died in Butler, two or three days ago, of delirium tremens. We understand that the people of that district are perfectly resigned to this dispensation of Providence."

ARKANSAS.

The Searcy Record says: Great apprehension is felt in regard to rain. Unless a few drops of water are vouchsafed the planter soon, corn as well as cotton will suffer greatly. Numbers of old farmers express uneasiness on this score.

—The Little Rock Gazette of the 3d says: We have been shown a few stalks of cotton from the plantation of Messrs. Whitmore & Arbuckle, fourteen miles below the city, on the north side of the river, that beat anything in the cotton line we have yet seen. They are full five feet in hight, and have about fifty full size bolls on them. These stalks were not selected, but are fair specimens of the entire crop. Hurry up, Capt. Buck.

—The Helena Clarion of the 1st says: The most burning heat and drouth prevail in this region to the great discomfort of man and beast, and the serious injury, we fear, of the crops. Vegetables are shriveling, and the corn, lately so green and vigorous, begins to wither and fade. Cotton also suffers, though to a less extent. Yet thank heaven, the health of our people was never better.

P. S.—Thank kind heaven again, a gentle rain has fallen, though less abundant than our wants require. But the weatherwise predict other showers.

SPECIAL TO MEMPHIS APPEAL.

NEW YORK.

PENDLETON AHEAD ON SIXTH BALLOT.

Tennessee Memorial well Received.

Leftwich to be on the Executive Committee.

JOHNSON'S FRIENDS STILL FIRM.

New York will not Support Pendleton or Hancock.

Necessary Combinations Most Certainly Effected Last Night.

Special Dispatch to the Memphis Appeal.]

TAMMANY HALL, NEW YORK, July 7.

Nothing has transpired in the proceedings to-day to indicate who will be the choice of the Covention. The gain of Pendleton on the Sixth ballot is light. Johnson's friends are yet hopeful. Chase has not been mentioned, but may be on the breaking up of the present combinations. Hancock is slowly increasing, but, so far as I can learn, without any chance of ultimate nomination. The friends of Pendleton are jubilant and encouraged, and are working hard. Seymour's declining enhances him in the estimation of the party. On the third ballot the Indiana delegation retired, when it was expected they would change front, but on their return cast a solid vote for Pendleton.

The Tennessee memorial presented by Judge Brown was not read. The Judge, instead, gave a synopsis, which was well received.

Leftwich will be a member of the National Executive Committee.

Tennessee will stand by Johnson until alone.

New York will not support Pendleton or Hancock, and will present new men to-morrow.

The combinations necessary to a choice are almost certain to be made to-night.

On the first ballot the vote stood: English, 16; Hancock, 33½; Pendleton, 105; Joel Packer, 13; Sanford Church, 34; Asa Parker, 26; Andrew Johnson, 65; Doolittle, 13; Blair, 1½; Hendricks, 7½; Reverdy Johnson, 8½.

On the sixth ballot the vote stood: English, 6; Hancock, 47; Pendleton, 122½; Joel Packer, 13; Sanford Church, 33; Asa Parker, 27; Andrew Johnson, 21; Doolittle, 12; Blair, 5; Hendricks, 30. Necessary to a choice, 211½.

The Radicals in caucus last night nominated for United States Senators, W. H. Kellogg, Collector of the port of New Orleans, and J. S. Harris, of Concordia parish. Kellogg was nominated by the Senate to-day, which then adjourned, without coming to a vote on the second Senator.

In the House a motion to go into a Senatorial election was tabled.

The New Orleans Times of the 5th says: The creatures of an aggressive Radicalism are playing the rule or ruin game at the Mechanics' Institute with a vengeance. They are determined to heed no warning. Like fools, they rush on where wiser men would pause. Though able to count on a clear majority in both branches of the Legislature, they still, with insolent effrontery, unseated member after member, whom they knew were opposed to them, and filled their places with defeated Radicals. Having got fairly to work, every step which they take is aggressive in its design and partisan in its character. An infamous printing bill, designed to enrich a Radical cotemporary at the expense of the tax-paying public, has been prepared. A metropolitan police bill has been adopted by the House, which gives to Warmoth the appointment of a Police Board, "who shall have full power to appoint and remove and control the officers and men of the police force of the city of New Orleans." The design of this step is clearly apparent. Another bill which has already been passed by the House gives the new Radical Governor authority to inquire into the antecedents of all persons appointed or elected to office, and to refuse to furnish a commission to such person if, in his opinion, they are disqualified by virtue of the provisions of the 14th amendment of the Constitution of the United States, or of article 99 of the new Constitution of this State. This gives to a partisan Governor a most dangerous supervising power over the electoral privileges and acts of the people, and while it continues in force will render the carpet-bag policy triumphant. In these desperate stretches of power we discover sources of encouragement. The blacker the cloud, the brighter its silver lining when turned toward the light. If a moderate and conciliatory course had been adopted by the Radical majority in our General Assembly, they might have retained power for some time to come, and strengthened the hands of their friends. But the course which they are now pursuing is calculated to disgust all sensible men, no matter what their political opinions, and will greatly aid the Democratic cause. Let them go ahead!

RELIGIOUS.—There will be preaching at the Christian Church, corner of Linden and Mulberry streets, this evening, by the Rev. Talbot Fanning, of Nashville.

BASE BALL.—There will be a match game to-day at Hopefield, Ark., between the "Pride of the South" and "Bluff City" Clubs, for the championship of West Tennessee. The players and their friends will go over on the steamer Nevada at 2½ o'clock, and we look for a fine game.

CENTER HILL ACADEMY.—The examination exercises of this Academy, which is at Center Hill, DeSoto county, Miss., will commence to-day, and will conclude to-morrow with an exhibition. Many of the pupils are from Memphis, and the school is said to be a most excellent one.

All desirous of securing bargains will find it to their advantage to attend these sales.

POLICE ITEMS.

—There were five arrest up to six o'clock yesterday evening in the lower district.

—F. Hoxly, a soldier, had a hearing yesterday before Squire Griffith, on the charge of stealing a watch from A. Montrand, on Saturday, and was sent to the Criminal Court. In default of $1000 bail he goes to jail.

—Squire Black heard the case of Sarah Williams, Martha Dunlap and Mary Davis—charge and counter-charge of perjury. When the case was called the court room was like the celebrated

"Song of sixpence, stomach full of rye,
Four and twenty black-birds baked in a pie.
When the pie was opened they all began to sing," and all sang so that the Squire was glad to get rid of the case by dismissing it.

—Our friend, Col. H. W. Fitch, of the Gas Company was unfortunate enough to loose a casket of jewelry worth a thousand dollars—stolen from his residence on Monday afternoon. We hope that our skillful detectives will soon be able to return it to him.

"A WOW, A WIOT, A WUMPUS."—Yesterday about mid-day quite a little row occurred on Court street, near Third, and for a time there were apprehensions, in the minds of citizens round about, of serious trouble. The difficulty originated in a fight or quarrel between a little son of F. M. Cash, Esq., and a negro boy. The mother of the negro seeing the fight, ran out and interfered, striking little Cash with a stick or club. Several of Cash's companions ran up to his aid, and then commenced a general free fight, in which soon some dozen or so boys and girls were engaged like jaybirds round a couple of owls. For a while the affair was comical, but it soon became too serious to be amusing. One of the boys drew a knife, which the woman got possession of and made a blow at him with, which, if it had hit him, would have killed him. On this, another boy picked up a rock and struck her side the head, bringing the claret and a most dismal howl from the black amazon. About this time she thought that region was getting a little too warm, so she turned and most ignominiously fled, leaving her swarthy progeny to fight the battle alone. Not long, however, did that youthful hero tarry after the mother left, but yelling "pieces, pieces," he too tried a little travel. The cry of "police" was the dread tocsin of alarm to the youthful combatants, and like the old cry of "rats to your holes" in the "bombardment" days of Vicksburg, caused a general scatteration, and when the guardians of the peace appeared on the scene, all was quiet along Court street.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Committees and Delegates Appointed.

Grand Ratification Jubilee Tomorrow Night.

Pursuant to the call of M. D. L. Stewart, chairman, a Democratic meeting was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Municipal Hall. About fifty persons only were present, but these represented the brain, bone and sinew of our city.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Stewart, and on motion of R. D. Baugh, Esq., Col. M. C. Gallaway took the chair, and in a few forcible remarks urged upon the assembly the necessity of concentrated and consolidated action.

At the close of his remarks Mr. Stewart introduced a resolution that a Committee of Three be appointed by the chair to act as delegates to the Brownsville Convention. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously.

Maj. Merriwether moved that the number be increased to five, which was seconded and adopted; and the chair appointed Messrs. M. D. L. Stewart, F. A. Tyler, Minor Merriwether, John Ainslie and R. D. Baugh.

On motion, a committee of five was appointed to attend the Convention to nominate a Congressman for this District—the committee to consist of Messrs. P. M. Winters, Albert Pike, Van Anderson, G. P. Foute and J. P. Tobin.

Judge Foute said that as the regular meeting of the Democratic Club would not be until Saturday night, and it was expedient that there should be some sort of ratification of the nomination made in New York, as soon as the news came, he would move that a committee of ten be appointed from the present meeting, to arrange all the necessary steps for a grand Democratic rally and ratification meeting, to be held on some evening this week.

The chair suggested Thursday evening, and the suggestion was accepted.

The motion was then put and carried unanimously, and the following named gentlemen were appointed on the committee:

Messrs. G. P. Foute, Chairman; P. W. Winters, Van Anderson, R. D. Baugh, Gen. Ruffin, P. J. Mulvehill, C. D. McLean, Martin Kelly, J. W. Woltering, Andrew Drew.

Mr. John Ainslie made a motion which was seconded and carried unanimously, that the chair be added to the two Committees of Five to attend the Brownsville Convention.

Mr. M. D. L. Stewart offered a motion that a Democratic Executive Committee, composed of nine, should be appointed by this meeting.

The motion was seconded and on being put to a vote, carried; and Mr. Stewart suggested the following names, which were adopted, to constitute the Executive Committee:

Messrs. P. T. Scruggs, P. M. Winters, M. C. Gallaway, John P. Tobin, F. A. Tyler, H. M. Lowenstein, J. M. Coleman, Martin Kelly and P. J. Mulvehill.

Maj. Merriwether moved that Mr. M. D. L. Stewart and Gen. Pike be added to the committee, which, after some objections, which were overruled, on the part of the gentlemen named, was adopted, and their names added to the committee.

Gen. Pike addressed the meeting in a happy and forcible address, which we regret we cannot reproduce here on account of the great drain on our space by to-day's telegraphic matter. He did not think that any differences which might have sprung up, or might spring up among us, would be of any duration. The necessity of unity of action was like that expressed by one of our revolutionary forefathers—all hang together, or hang separately. This was a question no longer of old party principles—Whigs or Know Nothings or Democrats—it is the white race against the black—and though he was once a member of the "Know Nothing" party, he welcomed and hailed all white men now, of whatever nationality, as brothers.

Col. Morgan, City Attorney, followed in a few eloquent remarks to the same effect. He had never before participated, he said, in a Democratic council, but that henceforth he would act with the party as the only hope of the down-trodden and oppressed.

Capt. Mulvehill followed in behalf of the Irish citizens, and rejoiced to learn the feeling which really animated the gentlemen who had spoken. He, in common with his countrymen, had been misled as to the opinions of the gentlemen who had gotten up the Democratic Club.

Maj. Merriwether denounced as false in every particular the statement that has been disseminated by evil minded persons, who were seeking to sow seeds of discord among us, that the origin of the Democratic Club was a secret conclave on Front street. There was no secrecy about it. He was one of the originators. There were, it is true, but few concerned in its inception, as there are in almost every beginning; but there were as many Democrats as Whigs, as many privates as officers, as many who had not been in the Confederate army present as of those who had, and he denounced as utterly false any statement to the contrary.

Col. Gallaway, the chair, said that he had never belonged to the "Know-Nothing Society," but that he had been accused in favor of joining anybody or He was ready to break the chains with which anything to be bound.

Gen. Pike desired to state that he knew nothing of any secret organization having been to the Democratic Club; he had waited on by a party of gentlemen asked to accept the Presidency of the Club, and had signified his willingness to do anything that the cause demanded of him.

Col. Tyler: That whatever disagreements there were among the gentlemen were the results of a misconception, which being explained away, perfect harmony would ensue. To test it, he would move, he said, that the present meeting be merged into and considered a part of the Democratic Club.

The proposition was received with applause, seconded and carried without a dissenting voice.

Gen. Pike gave notice that the next regular meeting of the Club was on next Saturday evening in the Stillman Block, and that he should take the Chair punctually at 8½ o'clock.

Judge Foute announced that he would like to meet the Committee on Arrangements, at Jim Schools', this morning, at 11 o'clock a.m.

The meeting then adjourned.

KUKLUX RAID.—We learn by a private letter, that on the night of Saturday, the 4th inst., a body of about fifty men, disguised, rode into the town of Humboldt, Tenn. They did no damage, but scared some of the inhabitants out of a year's growth, and after remaining around the station an hour or so, they quietly departed. It is said that they hung two men just before leaving the town. We wish some of them would make a raid over this way and help the Grand Jury a little in cleaning out the jails and stationhouses.

CITY COUNCIL.

Regular Monthly Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen was held yesterday.

Present—Hon. J. D. Ruffin, Mayor pro tem., Chairman Swayne, Aldermen Glancey, Johnson, Joyce, Black, Mageveny, Cartwright, Brown, O'Donnel, Hoist, Cicalla, Lemon, Moffatt and Ellis.

The chairman called the Board to order, the minutes of preceding meeting were read, and the following message from the Mayor was read and received; Honorable Board of Aldermen:

Gentlemen: I have been called upon by a committee to ascertain whether the rooms in the third story of the engine-house, corner of Adams and Second streets, could be rented as a courtroom. I have examined the rooms and think they are worth one hundred ($100) dollars per month in money. I learn that there is some opposition to the renting of the same, but knowing as you do that we are paying out money every day, and but little coming in, and believing that the city affairs should be managed as we would our private business, I would advise you to appoint a committee to confer with the court committee, and let them rent the rooms out upon the best terms they can for the city.

I have received a communication asking why the city will not use yellow pine lumber for paving purposes. I have spoken to the paving contractors, and they are perfectly willing to use it provided your honorable body will agree to it. I understand it is used in New York, brought from North Carolina, in preference to white pine, which is more convenient and cheaper to them. I would advise that your Paving Committee be allowed to examine into the matter, and if they think it best to order it.

In my last communication I thought it best to re-establish your Board of Health, with the express understanding that neither the Board nor the Secretary should charge for their services. I think it all important, as oftentimes application is made for admission to the hospital by persons that, perhaps, are not sick enough to be sent there, and can only be judged of by a physician.

I would advise that you pass, instanter, an ordinance to prevent dogs from running at large, without they are muzzled, as several persons have already been bitten by mad dogs, and have died a terrible death. Very respectfully,

J. D. RUFFIN, Mayor pro tem.

JUVENILE SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Yesterday morning as a little boy, the son of Mr. Collins, who keeps a feed store on Poplar street, near the market, was minding some cattle, in company with a negro boy of about his own age, a couple of negro youths came along and got into conversation with them, and commenced a row, in which one of the strange negroes drew a pistol and shot young Collins in the head, making a severe but not a dangerous wound. As soon as the shooting was done, the negroes fled, and up to writing (10 o'clock p.m.) have not been arrested. The Police, however, know them, and are on their track. The wounded boy was carried home and properly cared for. We most sincerely hope these black scoundrels may be brought to justice.

EXIT WICKERSHAM.

The Circuit Court of Shelby county adjourned yesterday till the first Monday in September next. By the following order, it will be seen that Mr. Trustee Wickersham was unable to give the required bonds—at least such as were acceptable to the Court. The office was declared vacant by Judge Reeves, and the vacancy ordered to be filled according to law, at the cost of Wickersham. This is truly the "most unkindest cut of all." Not only does Judge Reeves take away the honors, the emoluments, the stealages and chances of filling his carpet-bag—all so glowingly promised him by the generous place into which his 'cullud' brethren had voted him,—but at one fell swoop he takes away the very place itself, and adds that cruelest of tortures—an order compelling him to pay the expenses of putting another man in the place. "Farewell, a long farewell to my greatness!" sighs he, like Woolsey, and we suppose will, ere long, pack his carpet bag and travel to the land whence all such as he come to us, and whither, we hope, they may all return as he will do—foiled in their attempts to rob the widow and orphans.

E. W. Wickersham, Trustee for the county of Shelby, having been notified under the orders of this Court, to appear in open court at a former day of this term, and execute bond with good and approved security as such Trustee, having wholly failed and neglected to comply with the said orders—the Court doth therefore, by virtue and authority of the statute in such cases made and provided, declare the office of Trustee of Shelby county, Tennessee, vacant, and the said E. W. Wickersham is expressly enjoined from further acting as such trustee or performing any of the functions of said office. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be certified to the County Commissioners of Shelby county, that the vacancy hereby created may be filled according to law; and that the said Wickersham pay the costs herein.

MISCELLANEOUS.

We had no arrival up to dark last night, and the repose of our river is becoming almost as permanent and unruffled as in the primitive days when barges were cordelled from New Orleans to St. Louis.

The Indiana, Capt. Holcroft, will pass down this morning for New Orleans. Mr. Charley Miller is clerk.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis, connecting with the steamers of the Northern Line for St. Paul.

The Bluff City and Pride of the South Bass Ball Clubs play a match at Hopefield to-day at 3 p.m.

The Southern Republic, a splendid two story cabin steamer, the finest perhaps of the kind ever built in the South, has been at New Orleans for some months. She was advertised for sale, but no purchaser appearing, she has been taken back to Mobile.

The Commercial, for White river, had a good trip last evening; and the Hambleton, for St. Francis river, also had a very fair freight as well as passenger list.

The fine packet Clifton, Capt. Alf. Stein, will get away to-day for Cairo and Cincinnati. She is a light and handsome passenger packet, and will go through without trouble. Mr. Hunter is chief clerk.

The local inspectors at Pittsburg, in the case of the collision between the Arab and Ingomar, in Glass House Ripple, on the 13th of May last, by which a barge in tow of the Arab was sunk, have suspended the license of B. F. Vennan, pilot of the Ingomar, for sixty days.

The Great Republic, Lady Gay, Olive Branch, Continental, Big Horn, and three or four small boats, are lying up at East St. Louis.

Chas. B. Lewis, a local editor of Lansing, Mich., was blown up on the Magnolia, near Cincinnati. He has published his experience, which is not at all pleasant. He winds up as follows:

"Getting home—my friends had been looking to see me come in a coffin—my wounds had all filled up with "proud flesh." This of course had to be burned out—driving me crazy for a night and a day—and compelling me to use a solution of blue vitriol twice a day for forty days. So you can form a slight idea of the pain and suffering, and how much 'ye local' can endure without becoming 'dead matter.'

"Now, after a lapse of almost one hundred days, I find myself once more about, but condemned to wear the savage marks of the steam-fiend to my grave. A bald spot where the iron missile crushed my skull, a 'piebald' eye, a face that resembles a beet, and over my arms, body and limbs are scars that resemble great slices of fresh beef laid upon the skin. But after all, I am yet alive and getting ready to once more pursue the 'itemizing' business, which you know is vastly better than being fished out of the Ohio some torpid day, with no Coroner handy for an inquest."

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in this country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Piano, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved Legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years.

Hopkins did pay the sum or $500 00.

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, R. C. Brinkley and A. F. Hopkins, the drawers respectively of the aforesaid accommodation bills, and to secure also the said A. and J. Denniston & Co. on the note aforesaid, the said Arthur M. Hopkins did execute an indenture of trust, dated the 8th day of February, 1861, by and in which he conveyed to Charles Kortrecht the premises situate in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, known and described as follows: "A certain piece or parcel of land lying and being near the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and consisting of about ten acres, which was conveyed in fee simple by James W. Hopkins by said James W. Pryor and Katherine M. Pryor, his wife, by their deed dated the 3, 1856, upon Trust; that in case a majority of the beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust mentioned should direct a sale of said premises, then the said Charles Kortrecht was thereby authorized and instructed to sell said premises, at public auction, in the city of Memphis, State of Tennessee, after giving sixty days notice in one or more of the newspapers published in said city of Memphis, of the time and place of said sale, said sale to be made for cash or credit, as a majority of the beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named might direct, and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay said accommodation bills and the note aforesaid, and to pay the remainder, if any, over to said Arthur M. Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois, in Book 210 of Deeds, page 502.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been made for a sale of said premises, for cash, as been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on

THE NATIONAL

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country through which the lines pass.

The Capital is to be

In 100,000 Shares, of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE,

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 Per Share,

And this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more, until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent. of par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued This will give the company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000,

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies of the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over FIVE HUNDRED per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The stockholders of this company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other company. The act of Congress under which this company has been organized, prohibits any transfer of the franchises granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE.

One per cent. of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent. is paid, until the ENTIRE CAPITAL STOCK shall have been subscribed.

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent. of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 MILES OF WIRE,

Which will connect all the commercial cente and important places in the United States This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

The National Telegraph Company is organized under the Laws of the State of New York and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.
